

Term Card

Michaelmas 2014

Week	Day(s)	Location	Event
1 st	Monday	Daubeny Building, Magdalen	Freshers' Introductory Event
3 rd	Monday- Saturday	All of Oxford	Freshers' Game
3 rd	Saturday	A pub	Post-Game Social
6 th	Monday- Sunday (7 th)	All of Oxford	Triads
7 th	Sunday	A pub	Post-Game Social
TBC	TBC	TBC	Social

“We shook on it in agreement and it was then that the contact poison on my gloves entered straight through her skin and into her blood rendering her dead in seconds”

Events coming up this year-

- Varsity matches with Imperial and others
- Pirate Punting
- Murder Mystery
- Duelling tournaments
- Zombie Game
- Awards Dinner
- And many trips to the pub

Interested in Joining?

The Oxford Guild of Assassins is a lovely bunch of people who like to launch daring midnight raids, carry attack animals, write operatic kill reports and generally have a lot of fun! If a week of getting to know people because they're standing outside your door with an attack otter sounds interesting (or you fancy trying some of our epic socials), sign up on the website:

www.oxfordassassinsguild.org.uk

then pidge the extortionate fee of £1 to Isobel “Incantanto” Priest (St. John’s), for lifetime membership of Oxford’s most famous secret society.

And then possibly stock up on weaponry.

For more info contact the Cabal:

Guildmaster- Tom ‘Platypus’ Lear (thomas.lear@magd.ox.ac.uk)

Secretary- Anna ‘Die Fledermaus’ Spearing-Ewyn (anna.spearing-ewyn@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

Treasurer- Isobel ‘Incantanto’ Priest (isobel.priest@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

Archivist- Ben ‘Odysseus’ Kybett (benjamin.kybett@magd.ox.ac.uk)

High Inquisitor- Andrea ‘Rorschach’ Luppi (andrea.luppi@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

The Oxford Guild of Assassins are not genuine hit-men, murderers or assassins. We can't help you with that. We might be able to cobble together a sternly worded letter on request – possibly in iambic pentameter – but honestly, you should probably get help before coming to us...